Hello and thank you for calling to learn more about our work at home program. Would you like to supplement your income or simply earn an outstanding income working out of the comfort of your home? You can. Many people already do. And we can easily show you how. Hi, I'm Steve, recruiting director for this exciting program. Here's how it works. Very simply, you will receive five dollars for each envelope that you stuff with our sales brochures plus fifteen dollars for each person who orders our product. You do the math. You complete one hundred envelopes and you make five hundred dollars plus commissions. There is no limit. The program is unconditionally guaranteed and you will never have to mail any objectionable materials. The work is easy and virtually anyone can do it. For free information outlining our program, please take a moment to leave your name and address, speaking slowly and clearly, spelling any unusual words, and a staff member will rush a copy to you. Thanks for calling and have a great day.
